New Adult Sunday School Series Starts November 3rd!

The Adult Sunday School class will study "Footnotes: Major Lessons from Minor Bible Characters," presented by Julie Lyles Carr. She says minor characters never get top billing. But...have you noticed how their roles can be a key to the purpose of the story? It's the same in the Bible. The very characters who are mere blips on the biblical radar screen have major lessons to teach. The characters she will talk about include: Tychirus, Joanna, Ephaphras, and Quirinius. I'll bet you never heard of them. Neither had I but, their names are in the Bible. Julie will unpack why.

Julie Lyles Carr is a best-selling author, popular speaker, business owner, media talent, and content consultant. Receiving her Bachelor of Science in Pre-Med/Psychology and her Bachelor of Arts in English Literature from Abilene Christian University, Julie began her career in radio and television as an anchor and reporter. A popular speaker and teacher, Julie speaks on a variety of platforms in both business and faith settings.

UMCOR, The UMC Are Aiding Communities and Churches Impacted by Hurricane Helene

United Methodist Committee on Relief (UMCOR) is working with disaster coordinators and Early Response Teams (ERT) in annual conferences to assist local churches impacted by the deadly Hurricane Helene.

"Thank you for your continued prayers for the people of Florida who have been impacted by Hurricane Helene. Approximately 50 of our United Methodist churches have been impacted in some way, but more importantly, our communities have been impacted in every way," said Florida Conference Bishop Tom Berlin.

In his prayer for the people of Western North Carolina Bishop Ken Carter stated, "O God, we place our trust in you. In the aftermath of ravaging wind and surging flood, inspire those who give themselves for others. Let that work be done justly, wisely, safely, generously. Help us to turn toward one another in our need. Strengthen our bonds of connection and love for each other.
